The Senior Farmers Market Nutrition Program (SFMNP) provides fresh fruit and vegetables to lower-income seniors with the goal of improving their health and nutritional status. It also supports local farming by increasing the use of farmers markets and roadside stands.

Seniors are encouraged to be active participants in redeeming their checks and choosing the fresh produce they will buy. If the senior is unable to fully participate in any part of the program due to disability or lack of transportation, they may designate by this proxy form a representative to participate on their behalf.
