

Dementia Road Map Insert: A Guide to Local Spokane Resources for Family and Care Partners

DEMENTIA ROAD MAP OVERVIEW: For local resources, see the category listed in the Spokane Area— Local Dementia Resources Document (attached)

Wondering & Worried

- Obtain a medical assessment to find out what may be causing the problems. (See your health care professional, a Geriatrician, a Neurologist, and/or a Neuropsychologist.)
- Complete health care planning documents such as a Health Care Directive. (Contact Community Living Connections at 509-960-7281 if needing support. A Health Care Directive can be found at www.dshs.wa.gov/sites/default/files/DDA/dda/documents/policy/policy9.01attachA.pdf.)
- Complete a General Durable Power of Attorney document. In this document, your loved one appoints an “agent” to assist with financial and related matters. (See Legal Assistance section of attached resources document if looking for local support.)
- Complete an estate plan. Your loved one’s estate plan may include legal documents such as a will or a trust that direct the disposition of their estate upon death. (See Legal Assistance section of attached.)

Mild Cognitive Impairment (MCI)

- Discuss with loved one the issue of when to discontinue driving. (See the Driving section of attached resources document for local support.)
- To help your loved one:
 - Support them in managing any heart conditions, high blood pressure or diabetes as needed. This may include helping them to manage medications. (See your physician or additional medical support categories in the attached resources document.)
 - Encourage a healthy lifestyle including regular exercise, a healthy diet, and social activities. (See Exercise, Peer Support, Depression/ Mood, and Falls section in the attached resources document.)
 - Encourage the use of long-time skills, like playing the piano, singing, typing, crafts, or speaking a second language. (See Peer Support in the attached resources document.)

Early-Stage Dementia

Mid-Stage Dementia

Late-Stage Dementia

Services to consider:

- Educational workshops, Alzheimer's/dementia seminars, E-Learning and online courses (See Dementia Education section of attached resources document if looking for local support.)
- Powerful Tools for Caregivers classes (See Caregiver Support Groups section of attached resources document.)
- Get connected online (Visit the Alzheimer's Association's website www.alz.org/alzwa)
- MedicAlert+Safe Return Service—uses a community support network including the police, to locate your loved one in case they wander. (See Wandering/ Safe Return/ Medic Alert section of attached resources document.)
- Consultants who specialize in caregiving and/or dementia are available through Community Living Connections or the Alzheimer's Association. (Contact your local Community Living Connections at 509-960-7281, or contact the Alzheimer's Association's 24/7 hotline at 1-800-272-3900)

Services to consider:

- Education workshops or conferences for caregivers. (See Dementia Education section of attached resources document if looking for local support.)
- Technology to assist with a variety of tasks—reminders, cameras, chimes to alert if an exterior door opens, etc. (See Mobility/ Medical Equipment, and Assistive Devices section of attached resources document.)
- Adult day services offer your loved one activity, exercise and socialization and provides you with some time for yourself. (See Adult Day Care section of attached resources document.)
- In-home care to assist with bathing, dressing, getting ready in the morning or evening, other personal care tasks/routines. (See Personal Care/ Respite of attached resources document.)
- Counseling to handle your own grief, depression and anger, and get emotional support. (See Depression/Mood or Peer Support.)

If you haven't looked into or used yet:

- Support Group— Respite Care (in or out of the home) (See Caregiver Support Groups, Personal Care/ Respite.)
- Consultants who specialize in caregiving issues and can assist with behaviors (See Behaviors section.)
- Behavior education and consultation (See Dementia Education or Behaviors sections.)

Services to consider:

- In-home or residential care (See Memory Care/Residential, or Personal Care / Respite.)
- Palliative care and hospice care (See physician to discuss possible referral.)
- Support group (See Caregiver Support Groups.)
- Counseling or other emotional support for yourself (See Depression/ Mood or Peer Support section of attached resources document.)

This list was created by the Spokane Regional Dementia Friendly Community.

Spokane Area – Local Dementia Resources

SPEAK TO A PERSON – Local Help is Available

- Would you like to speak with a specialist for help in the Spokane region?
Call the local Community Living Connections helpline at 509-960-7281.
- Do you need help or support right away?
Call the Alzheimer's Association's 24/7 helpline at 1-800-272-3900.

Place a report through Adult Protective Services (APS) if you suspect an adult has been abused, neglected, exploited, or is unable to protect themselves. Call 1-877-734-6277 or email apscentralintake@dshs.wa.gov.

➤ When in doubt, report. All reports will be screened by APS and/or Residential Care Services.

If the person is in immediate danger, call 911. You do not need proof to report and you do not need to give your name.
